

ADJUTANT AND INSPECTOR GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Richmond, Jan. 5, 1864.

GENERAL ORDERS, }
No. 2. }

For the information of all concerned, and to correct prevalent misapprehension, it is announced that there exists no mandatory provision of law securing to Enrolled Conscripts the right to choose in what company or regiment they will serve. They cannot be assigned to companies from other States, and, in general, their wishes are to be consulted as to the choice of companies, where no considerations for the good of the service intervene to prevent compliance. Assignments once made by Commandants of Conscripts, in good faith, in the exercise of their discretion, will not be considered as fit subjects for complaints.

By order.

S. COOPER,
Adjutant and Inspector General.
